Operations Memorandum

To: New Haven Board of Education Finance and Operations Committee
From: Michael J. Pinto, COO
Date: August 3, 2020
Re: Month-to-Month Agreement with Carol and Michael Frawley to rental of Storage Space for Edgewood School

Contractor Name: Carol and Michael Frawley

Contractor Address: 170 Cleveland Road, New Haven, CT

Is the contractor a Minority or Women Owned Small Business? No

Renewal or Award of Contract/Agreement? Renewal

Total Amount of Contract/Agreement and the Hourly or Service Rate:

The lease $4,200.00 payable in monthly installments of $350.00.

Contract or Agreement #:

Funding Source & Account #: Operating Budget 190-58000-56652

Key Questions: (Please have someone ready to discuss the details of each question during the Finance & Operations meeting or this proposal might not be advanced for consideration by the full Board of Education):

1. What specific service will the contractor provide:

This lease provides a suitable location that will be providing a storage space for Edgewood School for the surplus of items that cannot be stored on site, but is in close proximity to the school for FY 2019-2020.

2. How was the contractor selected? Quotes? RFP? Sealed Bid or Sole Source? Please describe the selection process including other sources considered and the rationale for selecting this method of selection:

N/A, it is the current location of the storage space for Edgewood school.

3. If this is a renewal with a current vendor, has the vendor's performance been satisfactory under the existing contract or agreement?

The property owner has been very responsive over the years and has shown a willingness to accommodate our needs of our schools. The location has allowed for easy access to stored items.

4. If this Contract/Agreement is a Renewal has cost increased? If yes, by how much?

No the amount has no change from previous years.

5. If this Contractor is New has cost for service increased from previous years? If yes, by how much?

MONTH-TO-MONTH RENTAL AGREEMENT
by and between the
New Haven Board of Education and
Frawley Investments

EXECUTED ORIGINAL

This Agreement is made on this 1st day of July, 2014 between Frawley Investments ("Landlord"), of 170 Cleveland Rd, City of New Haven, State of Connecticut and New Haven Board of Education ("Tenant"), of 54 Meadow Street, City of New Haven, State of Connecticut.

1. The Landlord agrees to rent to the Tenant and the Tenant agrees to rent from the Landlord on a month-to-month basis, 660 sq. feet of storage space located at 763 Edgewood Avenue, New Haven, CT 06515.
2. This Agreement will begin on July 1, 2014 and will continue on a month-to-month basis until terminated. This Agreement may only be terminated by 30 days written notice from either party.
3. The rental payments will be $350.00 per month and will be payable by the Tenant to the Landlord on the 1st of each month, beginning on July 1, 2014.
4. No security deposit has been made under this agreement.
5. No additional month's rent has been made under this agreement.
6. The Tenant has inspected the premises and has found it satisfactory. Tenant agrees to maintain the premises and the surrounding outside area in a clean and sanitary manner and not to make any alterations to the premises without the Landlord's written consent. At the termination of this Agreement, the Tenant agrees to leave the premises in the same condition as when it was received, except for normal wear and tear.
7. The Tenant also agrees not to conduct any type of business in the premises, nor store or use any dangerous or hazardous materials. Tenant also agrees to comply with all rules, laws, and ordinances affecting the premises. Tenant agrees that no pets or other animals are allowed in the residence without the written permission of the Landlord.
8. The Landlord agrees to supply the following utilities to the Tenant: N/A
9. The Tenant agrees to obtain and pay for the following utilities: N/A
10. The Tenant agrees not to sub-let the premises or assign this Agreement without the Landlord's written consent. Tenant agrees to allow the Landlord reasonable access to the premises for inspection and repair. Landlord agrees to enter the premises only after notifying the Tenant in advance, except in an emergency.
11. If the Tenant fails to pay the rent on time or violates any other terms of this Agreement, the Landlord will provide written notice of the violation or default. If the violation or default is not corrected, the Landlord will have the right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with state law. The Landlord will also have the right to re-enter the premises and take possession of it and to take advantage of any other legal remedies available.
12. As required by law, the Landlord makes the following statement: "Radon gas is a naturally occurring radioactive gas that, when accumulated in sufficient quantities in a building, may present health risks to persons exposed to it. Levels of radon gas that exceed federal and state guidelines have been found in buildings in this state. Additional information regarding radon gas and radon gas testing may be obtained from your county health department."
13. As required by law, the Landlord makes the following LEAD WARNING STATEMENT: "Every purchaser or lessee of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular threat to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real estate is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspection in the seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase."

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) Mike 040-54-1175

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I Instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
